John 3:16-18
God sent his Son into the world to save the world.

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities—special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons. Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life. After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus' words. This is what we read in today's Gospel, John 3:16-18. In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it. The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

First Holy CommunionS

Congratulations to the following Children who received Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion on Saturday (yesterday). They will all return to the church in their first communion outfits to celebrate with the community next Sunday, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi at the 10.30 am Mass and to receive their First Holy Communion Certificates. There will then be a celebratory breakfast afterwards, in the Centenary Hall with cakes and goodies to share for everyone. There will also be bacon and sausage sandwiches available to purchase. If you would like to reserve one, please sign the sheet at the back of the church as this will help us with number approximation. . Sincere thanks to Anne Marie-Young and Team for their generosity of time and spirit in helping to prepare the Children for this wonderful and memorable day in the children’s lives and to their parents in bringing their children to celebrate this special event in such a magnificent and celebratory manner. A word of thanks also to those who helped in the decoration of the Church and to Four Seasons, Whyteleafe in providing the splendid flower arrangements for the high altar. The professional photographs of the day itself will be available in the Centenary Hall after the Mass next Sunday for purchase.

“Missionary Disciples in a changing world”
Fr Rob Esdaile has kindly agreed to come here to our Parish to share his vision for the Diocese in the light of falling numbers of vocations to the Priesthood and an even larger number of ageing Priests edging towards retirement. The meeting with Fr Rob starts around 7.30 pm on Friday 11th July in the Centenary Hall. Bar facilities available. It is hoped that as many of you as possible will be in attendance.

Squash Court
Many favourable comments have been expressed on the Squash Court with its new roof and freshly coated exterior. Thanks to Collier Roofing and Garret Till. Plans are afoot for the interior to be renovated so that it can be used as a further facility for the community, which will include its own toilets and kitchen and capable of more “rough and tumble” children’s activities. Sadly, due to an initial deposit not arriving at its destination to the Builders (lost in post) and a misunderstanding, the new back door onto the Centenary Hall that was scheduled to have been ready for use this weekend, has not happened. This will now instead be included as part of the upgrade to the interior of the Squash Court. The Old Hall will have an interior face-over, so that it is more “sitting-room” in style making it more conducive for sedate activities i.e. sacramental preparations/ catechetical meetings / R.C.I.A and a fully stocked and equipped Liturgical resource and media centre to also include a small Library. All of this work will be paid for from Mary Matthews very generous legacy. The Cubs/Scouts will be transferred to the Squash Court. Subject to Diocesan approval it is hoped that work will commence inside the next three to four weeks to be
