From Olympics to the Convent - On Wednesday 15th June at 7pm at Woldingham School, Sister Catherine Mary (32), a Franciscan Sister of Renewal and a former Olympian Speed – Skater, will be talking about hanging up her skates and devoting her life to serving God in full time ministry. Sister Catherine served as a tutor, facilitated retreats and worked in a soup kitchen in the Bronx before joining the Orders' new mission house in Leeds to do similar tasks. Please take the time to come along and hear the story of how Sister Catherine swapped the skin tight racing suit for an ankle habit which she wears today. Everyone is most welcome.

Fire Safety - we would like to take this opportunity to remind parishioners of the following:

- In the event of a fire in Church there are two escape routes, either through the fire exit at the front of the church or through the fire exits in the Old Hall.
- In the event of a fire the call "Fire" will be given and parishioners should evacuate by the safest route and assemble on the lawn in front of Church.
- Personal possessions and buggies should be left in church. If you have any mobility issues please remain in your seat and assistance will be given. Children will be led to the assembly points by Catechists if they are in Liturgy and we ask parents to meet them there. We would like to remind parishioners that aisles should be kept clear and push chairs should be left in the porch if there is no suitable space in Church.
- We would remind you that Arundel and Brighton policy is that only trained people should use fire extinguishers.
- In the event of a fire in the Centenary Hall, Club or Committee Room the fire alarm will be activated and parishioners should use the signed exits and wait at the assembly point on the lawn in front of Church.

The Sacred Heart church will be on show for the Open Caterham event 25/25th June. Your support is needed to help welcome our visitors in the church or in the tea room. Cake bakers we also need your very best offerings. More details in the porch. Please spread the word.

Feast of the Sacred Heart - Friday 3rd June. There will be Mass at 7pm with a choir followed by the BBQ. Have you posted your BBQ ticket into the box in the porch? If not please could you do so as soon as you can.
