You are Peter, and I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven

In celebrating Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day, we are given a reminder of the variety of types of people who are called to holiness, and the improbability of what they are called to do. Peter begins his journey with Jesus as an impetuous young man, who enthusiastically if misguidedly cuts off a Roman soldier's ear on the eve of Jesus' death and then denies him within a space of hours; Peter grows into being a steadfast leader of a community that undergoes tremendous challenges. Paul and people of his ilk are one of those challenges. He is old enough to be a respectable member of Jewish society and zealous in his application of the Torah, overseeing the stoning of Stephen. Yet God uses this conservative Jew to become the most vociferous missionary to the Gentiles. By implication, God can use anybody to spread the gospel, regardless of their background, but they may be required to change their modus operandi quite significantly! Jesus' gift to Peter of the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven and subsequent instruction that whatever Peter binds and looses will be bound and loosed in heaven has been often linked exclusively to sin and damnation and authority in the Church. The questions below take wider view of Peter's role, and recognise that 'binding' and 'loosing' can be applied in terms of freeing us from our sin in order to bind us to the good that God has made us for.

Prayer Vigil for Peace
