B I D D I N G P R A Y E R S

Gospel: Matthew 16:13-9

Commentary on this week's Gospel:

Jesus is teaching that we have to forgive not just seven times (the perfect number) but seventy-seven times. That means again and again and again, without limit - even if the attempts at reconciliation have failed.

We also get the reminder that Christ is always present in his community. The same promise is given at the beginning and end of the Gospel ('I am with you to the end of time'). Therefore, the strength of the community both to reconcile grievances and to make further requests of the Father lies in the presence of Christ within it. The same promise is here given to Christ as had earlier been given to Peter himself. Within Judaism, the Lord is present in the assembled community; in Judaism this is the awesome divine presence, the Shekinah; within Christianity the presence is the Spirit of Christ.

Season of Creation

The World Day of Prayer for Creation falls at the beginning of the Season of Creation, which runs until 4th October, the feast of St Francis of Assisi. This is an ecumenical season dedicated to prayer for the protection of creation and promotion of sustainable lifestyles.

We remember those in our Parish whose anniversaries occur at this time: Catherine Linsell, Marguerite Delicata, John King, Joan Borrás, Bob Tomiln, John Wood, Margaret Underwood, Harry Gaut, David Hodgson, Ian Campbell Clarke, Marie Teresa Saxby, Genoveva (Jenny) Rowen, Nancy Finnegan, Aimee Tsui, Luboua Lapkousis and Sonia Lewis.

Give us the grace to be open to reality,
 To hear the cries of pain from the sea, the shanty towns,
 The streaming landfill where children pick over toxic waste for a living.
 Let us be aware of who we are in the scheme of things: your hands to till and tend the goods of creation,
 To be shared among everybody;
 Your creatures, grateful for the gift of life.

Lord open my tear ducts. Raise my gaze to the needs of others. Alert my eyes to a bigger world. Come into the upper room of my heart and break open the doors of self-infatuation. Propel me beyond myself: that you may be in me and my joy complete.
