SPIRITUAL COMMUNION DURING MASS:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.

Although we are unable to visit during lockdown, there are still many ways in which we can offer support. Small amounts of financial help are also available.

As a conference, we meet regularly on Zoom and new members are always welcome.

MADABA

Fr Firas reports that the lockdown in Jordan continues. Nor are the population benefiting from vaccination. Only 30,000 doses have been administered so far.

He worries about the daily visits from parishioners asking for help with food and rent. By 10.30am on Tuesday morning he had already had 3 requests. There are no food banks in Jordan but he is considering starting one. Perhaps we can offer financial help for the purchase of basic foodstuffs in Lent?

JOURNEY OF FAITH

“Nothing on the telly again... why not join us with your cup of tea or glass of wine to start your journey of faith!”
What is that you ask?

Something unique in this day and age, a free, no obligation group that offers a greater understanding of those key life questions... What am I on this earth to do? Who is God? What does my faith mean to me? to name a few.

The pandemic has offered up an amazing chance to reassess our lives and the new year an equally good opportunity to make new beginnings. This could be your chance to discover aspects about scripture you never knew and build a deeper relationship with God.

You are all invited to a discussion on Zoom leading to a deeper understanding of our faith through the readings for next Sunday.

BIDDING PRAYERS

Both Cardinal Nichols & the Archbishop of Canterbury have asked all people to pray at 6pm for an end to the pandemic throughout February. There are a number of ways of doing this eg:

- Use the prayer printed here.
- Offer your own prayers
- Sit quietly for a short time.

“To want to pray is a prayer in its self.” Thomas Merton

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection. Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic. Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment. Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course. To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

NET (NATIONAL EVANGELIZATION TEAMS) MISSIONARIES - THANK YOU !

100%
Target reached!

A few weeks ago one of our parishioners, Lucy Farrelly, asked for your sponsorship as she had joined the NET Missionary. Lucy has emailed us to say a massive thank you to the Parish! She writes “I am now fully fundraised, the Parish were incredibly generous and I am so thankful! I couldn't serve on the NET mission without fundraising and it's such a joy to work with the Scottish students! Fundraising has also been such a lesson in humility for me in expectant faith! “

FAIRTRADE

The Coronavirus Pandemic poses a big threat to Fairtrade rural communities around the world. Often with limited health care services, farmers and workers face a highly uncertain future and collapsing markets. Fairtrade is one way to make a difference, through choosing products with the FAIRTRADE Mark every time you shop.

Q. “CAN ANYONE CAN STICK THE FAIRTRADE BADGE ON THEIR PRODUCT AND CLAIM IT’S ETHICAL ?”

A. Products with the FAIRTRADE Mark meet the rigorous Fairtrade Standards, meaning farmers and workers get a better deal and the product was produced in the most sustainable way possible. Any company ‘just slapping the Fairtrade badge on their product’ without meeting the above standards for that product would be investigated and could even open themselves up to legal action.

Fairtrade is much more than a Mark. It’s a global movement committed to urgent action to stop exploitation and fight back against the climate emergency.

Did you know? The next UN Climate Summit will take place in Glasgow in November 2021, and is a crucial opportunity that producers’ voices are heard in the UK and beyond. That is why the Fairtrade Foundation is part of the Climate Coalition, a group of over 130 organisations across the UK, working towards a truly green and sustainable world. Farmers in the Global South rely on the land they farm for their livelihoods and often have lower resilience to face the impacts of climate breakdown due to low incomes.

‘Climate change is a global issue. We, the farmers, have to deal with its consequences every day. For instance, this year we lacked food because of the heat. The production decreased this year too, so this affects the economy. People harvested less and received less money. So we all suffer from the negative consequences of the climate: it impacts the environment and our economy.’

Ebrottié Tanoh Florentin, a cocoa farmer in Côte d’Ivoire, talks about the risks faced by cocoa farming communities in West Africa.
