NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

Amos 7:12-15

Ephesians 1:3-14

Mark 6:7-13

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION DURING MASS:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen.

As an island nation we rely on sea transport for 90% of our food, medical supplies and many other goods. The sailors on these ships are very vulnerable and are often away from home for many months at a time. They suffer exploitation and may be stranded with no money far from home.

The Chaplains are often the link that gives them safety and some home comforts. Your prayers and donations are urgently needed to support the work of the Stella Maris Chaplains who give their time and personal safety to help sailors in great distress. <https://www.stellamaris.org.uk/seasunday/>. To donate and learn more please visit their website.

Fr Firas says the food bank is working well. It is operated by a group of parishioners each Tuesday and up to 30 families are provided with food each week. He is particularly pleased that the project has prompted parishioners who are more comfortably off to appreciate the plight of those without incomes at present. This has encouraged far more gifts of food from within the community than he had ever expected. Clothing is also being donated and distributed to those in need. He remains highly appreciative of our support in establishing the project.

Please remember in your prayers the souls of Edmond Kelly RIP, Breda Sharp RIP, and Anthony Fields RIP, who passed away recently.
May their souls rest in peace.
