PLANT SALE - TODAY

Our Annual Plant Sale is today after Mass and once again there is a wide variety of plants for sale. There is a poster on the notice board in the porch of plants currently available and who to contact. If you have any spare please bring them to church. Also, if you are able to help with setting up, selling or tidying up at the end of the sale, please contact Moyra on 01883 342928. Please support us and help make our Plant Sale as successful as last years.

STEPS

Now our new steps are in situ and with the warmer weather we hope is coming, the main doors of the Church will be open more often. Whilst we are waiting for the handrails to be fitted please take care whilst using the steps, the side door will also be open and we encourage you to use this should you need to hold onto a handrail in the interim.

NEW BOOK

The latest book by one of our parishioners, Roy Peachey, has just been published. It's called A Little Book of British Saints and was written for families and children aged 5 and up. It has lovely illustrations by Michelle Pitt and colouring pages at the back: <https://www.isaiahbooks.co.uk/product-page/a-little-book-of-british-saints>. Here's how the publisher describes it:

"This is a book of stories. True stories. Stories about remarkable saints who want to be your friends in heaven. Here you will find a peace-loving Viking and a saint who was captured by pirates. You will meet a horse dealer who was really a priest and a queen who became a nun. You can even read about a young saint who had lots of pets and played games on his computer. Complete with beautiful illustrations and pages to colour in, A Little Book of British Saints is a book to treasure and enjoy."

For further information about Roy's previous books for children and adults, see roypeachey.com.
